“Builders Announce New Members”

Plymouth, WI: September 14, 2010

The SCHBA holds all of its members to the highest standards in the building industry and new members are no exception. Potential SCHBA members are only approved and accepted after they have been thoroughly screened and agree to a stringent code of ethics. Through the SCHBA, all members have access to educational programming, standard forms, and the latest in industry news, trends, and techniques. Members are also listed on the association web site at schba.org as well as the membership roster printed annually. The Sheboygan County Home Builders Association is pleased to announce the new members who have been welcomed into our Association recently:

Partners for Community Development, Inc, located in Sheboygan, represented by Sara Naidl, located

Mike DePagter Plumbing, LLC, located in Oostburg, represented by Mike DePagter

Advanced Comfort Systems, located Oostburg, represented by Aaron Anger.
