NEWS RELEASE

Home Builders Expo 2011

Booth Space Now Available

Plymouth, February 18, 2011: Booth space for the Sheboygan County Home Builders Association (SCHBA) 27th annual Home Builders Expo - Friday, April 1st through Sunday, April 3rd, 2011, at the Blue Line Ice Arena in Sheboygan, is limited but still available. This event provides over 154 exhibit areas for vendors to share their home construction related product or service with the public. Consumers look forward to this premier home products event annually. This combination makes the Expo the largest, most comprehensive building trade show in Sheboygan County.

Home building, remodeling or any service or product provider related to the home building industry is invited to participate to display in this event. Booth space is sold on a first come first serve basis. Detailed information, as well as a floor plan and contract, can be found on the association web site at www.schba.org by clicking on Events – Home Expo. If you do not have access to the internet, you can call the association office at the number listed below to have the information faxed or mailed to you.
